

International Business Program's Training at Business Hotel Management School, Lucerne, Switzerland

11th Dec 2018

Dr.Yingsak Vanpetch and International Business faculty members participated in team building and personal branding development training organized by Business Hotel Management School in which the team has the opportunity to gain a deeper understanding regarding the topics and to exchange ideas and knowledge with other academics.

